

SULLIVAN'S DAY

Ten Thousand of His Followers Crowd First Regiment Armory to Start Battle on National Delegates.

The Battle for Delegates, Committeeships and Other Big Plums Taking Up Attention of Local Statesmen.

Wet and Dry Question Will Cut a Big Figure in Next Year's Battle Throughout the State of Illinois.

Factions in Both the Big Parties Are Making a Hard Fight for the Control of the Managing Committees.

Roger C. Sullivan was tendered a great ovation on Sunday by 10,000 of his followers who crowded into the First Regiment Armory and overflowed into the streets.

County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer, County Treasurer Henry Stuckart, John J. Coburn, the clerks of the courts, and other prominent followers were seated near Mr. Sullivan.

Mr. Sullivan in his speech, although he did not name Mr. Harrison, talked of those who had traded off the organization "in recent fights," referring to the defeat of Sweitzer for mayor, probably.

"This nation," said Mr. Sullivan, turning to President Wilson's regime, "has been fortunate in having Woodrow Wilson in the president's chair these last three years. I have not always agreed with Mr. Wilson, but we know today that he has faithfully and loyally carried out the Democratic program. His administration, at his urging, has placed on the statute books laws that benefit the American people as no other administration has done in our time."

"Illinois gave the nation its greatest president—Lincoln. It also gave the nation Woodrow Wilson in the next crisis, and I appeal to every true Democrat to join now in re-electing Woodrow Wilson as a guarantee of justice, right, peace, and prosperity to the future."

NOSE HOLDING FEAT

Opposition to Harrison Is Making the Most of It in the Present Battle.

Is it good politics to declare that you had to hold your nose while voting a Democratic ticket?

It is one of the issues in the Democratic National delegate fight.

Former Mayor Harrison's nose is in the thick of the battle, in this connection.

When the five times Mayor declared last spring that he would have to hold his nose while he was voting the Democratic mayoralty ticket he made history evidently.

It is the sort of history that is being repeated over and over again for the benefit of beginners in politics.

The Sullivan men are using it in this campaign for all it is worth.

They are also alleging that while Mayor Harrison held his nose and voted for Sweitzer

His followers are said to have forgotten about their noses and voted for Thompson by the thousands.

Result, Sunday closing, Republican victory, Democrats out of jobs, Loss of Democratic control of the City Government.

Attorney for Election Board Says They Can Cast Ballot for National Delegates.

Colin C. H. Fyfe, attorney for the Board of Election Commissioners, prepared an opinion to County Judge Scully to the effect that women may vote for delegates to national nominating conventions on April 11.

However, a legal fight that will lead to the Supreme Court may be necessary to enforce this step, because of a different view which County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer is said to hold about the matter.
